Kala Kilan

EDIT

This article is part of the Neververse Expanded Universe.

Unless you are a Neververse Sapkowski Scholar, enjoy

The Kala Kilan (The Black Kilan) are one of the Ulus of the Kilan.

In the past, they were not an Ulus at all - they were all the followers of the Black Khan that were marked as for their dishonor, among them various Ulus and Gert members. They left together and became an Ikht Gerts - and eventually grew into an Ulus themselves.

While they have redeemed themselves over the centuries, their clan is still seen as deceitful (+1 Deceit).

History ⚙

When the Black Khan arrived with his reinforcements in Ilan Qurun during the liberation of their Sartuuri and Naimaun and cousins, the armies of the Khan Congolmerate pushed south and conquered parts of northern Bia Thin.

When the Khans plotted to conquer all of Bia Thin, the Black Khan spoke out against them. The troops were weary and tired, and their bretheren had been liberated from the occupation - he argued that there was no more need for bloodshed.

A plan was hatched: the Black Khan sought to capture his fellow Khans in one fell swoop and declare himself the Khagan - the Khan of Khans.

To his dismay, his scheme was betrayed and infighting between the Black Khan's loyalists and the other Kilan broke out. This was latern known as the first civil war among the unified Kilan.

For his deceitful actions, the name of the Black Khan was removed from history altogether. Even his ultimate fate is not known.

As for those that followed him and their families, they were marked with a tattoo of shame beneath their eyes and sent back into Kilan-Tal. Instead of returning to their original Gerts however, they remained together, and over time their Ulus ceased to matter due to interbreeding. While technically an Ulus of Xanc, the Black Kilan are seen as their own Ulus due to the tattoo that marks them as deceitful.

Traditions & Unique Mannerisms ⚙

The Kala Kilan are all marked with a special tattoo beneath their eyes as member of their Ulus when they become of age (14). This is a mandated action that the Khagan has decreed, to go against this tradition is a death sentence.
